ASSOCIATION OF SOUTH AFRICA

THE COSMETIC INDUSTRY SUMMIT: BREAKING BARRIERS IN AFRICA

The Cosmetic Toiletry & Fragrance Association of South Africa (CTFA) on behalf of the South African Cosmetic industry, invites you to attend The Cosmetic Industry Summit: Breaking Barriers in Africa which is being launched for the first time in South Africa taking place at the IDC Conference Centre, Sandton, Johannesburg, South Africa on 16 & 17 October 2019. The Summit involves a partnership with the Industrial Development Corporation of South Africa (IDC) and support from the Department of Trade and Industry (Dti).

Born out of concern for the various technical barriers to trade in the African continent, the Cosmetic Industry Summit: Breaking Barriers in Africa brings together leaders from business and government and other interested parties to deliberate on ways to stimulate 'harmonisation' across the continent to ease trade within the African continent. Both local and international presenters have been invited to present on the regulatory framework in various countries in Africa, trade relations, and global best practice in the cosmetic and personal care industry.

The summit is expected to be attended by delegates both from South Africa and from countries across Africa. The line-up includes both international and speakers from African continents.

To be attended by policy and decision makers, business owners, senior executives and other stakeholders in the cosmetic and personal care industry both in South Africa and across Africa, the Summit will focus on the following topics, amongst others;

Introduction to the African-political economy relevant to business

The African continent strategically adapting to change or creating further barriers to trade for businesses

The Cosmetic Regulatory framework in South Africa

Regulatory Overview and synergies of Europe / America / China / Asia

The impact of Africa multilateral trade agreements – ACFTA, SACU, NEPAD, etc. and the implications for businesses across Africa
